COLLEGE OF DIETITIANS OF ALBERTA - REGISTRATION PATHWAY FOR NEW CANADIAN TRAINED APPLICANTS

Any graduate of an approved Canadian dietetic program which includes successful completion of both academic and internship requirements is eligible to apply for registration on the Temporary Register of the College of Dietitians of Alberta.

APPLICATION ASSESSMENT REGISTRATION DECISION REGISTRATION

1-3 business days to review application.

1-3 business days to process registration.

Applicant submits an online application along with required documents

Fee: $105.00

Once submitted,

College reviews application for completeness

complete,

College reviews application to confirm eligibility for registration

If met, Regis

If not met,

Registration Decision: Eligible for Registration

Written Interim Registration

Decision provided to applicant:

Registration denied with reasons

If eligible for registration,

Temporary Registration for practice in Alberta

Fee: $236.25

Once registered,

Complete national registration exam (Canadian Dietetic Registration Examination)

Fee: $600.00

If applicant appeals decision,

Applicant initiates appeal of registration decision

Within 30 days Fee: $262.50

Followed by.

Appeal decision on application by Council

 Written decision and reason of appeal are communicated to applicant

Up to 90 days

Once passed,

General Registration for practice in Alberta

Pro-rated Fee *

GREY boxes require action by the applicant.

BLUE text shows timelines.

GREEN text shows associated fees.

BROWN text shows transition steps.

* Fees pro-rated based on when exam was completed: After May CDRE, $448.88; After November CDRE, $149.63

College of Dietitians of Alberta | Phone: (780) 448-0059 | Email: execasst@collegeofdietitians.ab.ca | Website: www.collegeofdietitians.ab.ca